Boosting War Stamps To Close Big Drive

The war savings stamp drive is now on in full swing and there will be something doing every minute until the gong clangs the final of the last round at midnight tomorrow. Under the authority of the council of defense Milton Detch has opened up a big show at the corner of Brougher and Main, which will be continued during the next two nights.

There was plenty of excitement and fun last night which resulted in about sixty new cards of $5 stamps being started and it is hoped the lucky winners will continue the good work by pledging themselves to fill their cards to their full value of $100 each during the remaining months of the year. It has been arranged to have two booths in operation Friday night where the spectators and speculators can step up and file their pledge cards. There will also be a large list of volunteer workers out during the whole of Friday and the canvass of the city will be made as thorough as possible. The Red Cross honor roll contains 182 names, the third Liberty loan 1734 and there should be at least 2000. Subscriptions are coming in fast today which indicates that our people have at last interested themselves in maintaining the 100 per cent American spirit. Got in the harness everybody and we will yet go over the top. The following new members of the $1000 "limit club" have been reported: Nevada Tel. & Tel. company, Key Pittman, Mrs. Hugh Herd, and Mrs. Dan Dillon. This gives the limit club a total membership of eleven names.

REMEMBER, TOMORROW IS THE LAST DAY OF THE DRIVE.

The baton force consisted of Milton Detch, master of detail; J. J. McQuillan, master of stamps; Elmer Goetz, master of funds; Bert Skinner, wheel roller; Con Fisher, Billy Douglass and Eddie Addison, paddle peddlers and money getters.

Entertainers—Billy Murray and Al Mendels, who tendered their services for the campaign.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—General Pershing, under instructions from Washington has selected a regiment of infantry to be sent immediately to Italy, Secretary Baker announced. This regiment will carry the American flag and join those of Italy, France and Great Britain against the Austrians for moral effect. The United States is already represented in Italy by aviators.

(By Associated Press.)
Along the western battle line as well as in the mountains and Piave sectors of the Italian front the allied armies await further enemy efforts. Infantry activity is confined to local action at various points. It is believed the German command is about ready to launch another stroke against the allied lines. Artillery activity remains about normal on important sectors, but aerial fighting has increased markedly. Thirty-six German machines were brought down or forced to land in a damaged condition Tuesday by French and British airmen, while Berlin claims the destruction of twelve allied airplanes on the same day. German airplanes raided Paris Friday night.

There is much sickness among German troops, but this is not believed to be having any effect on plans for a renewal of the enemy offensive.
